President's Message

I'm writing this on the day before I'm handing it in, so if it's not good, forgive me. Maybe because I know that if I write this spontaneously, it'll probably be better than me giving it thought, and doing this right here, right now, will make me be more honest in talking to my fellow classmates of 2002.

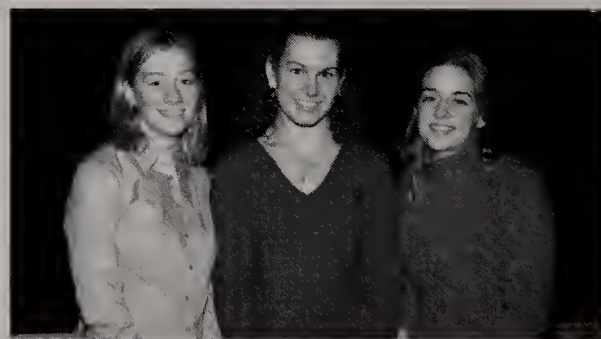

For the past four years, we have entered the doors of SHS and, for the most part, everything has been routine. We have shared experiences that make us laugh, such as a phone being elected to student council, and things that make us mourn, such as the tragedy of September 11. From now on, things in our lives won't be routine and predictable. We won't be able to see the same teachers greeting us at the door every morning or the groups of people hanging out in the hall before the next class begins. One thing that I hope we all remember is the good times and good friends we've had while here. They say you make the best friends of your life while you're in high school, and I believe it. Failing classes, ex - girlfriends, losing games and everything else you can think of, won't be as important as remembering your friends and the good times you shared with them.

The most important thing about graduation is to realize your life hasn't ended; it's only just begun. We are all going off to college to prepare for the careers that we will be working at for the rest of our lives. Does that matter? No, of course it doesn't. I should have taught you that by now. The main thing is to keep having fun and keep smiling. Now let's hear it for those caps and gowns.

Joe

Always in our hearts, Sean Pierce

I will never forget....

I will never forget your smile,
I will never forget your face.

I will never forget all the jokes
you cracked,
and how they brought a smile
upon my face.

I will never forget all the times
you were there for me,
good times and bad.

I will never forget the little fights we had, then just hugged and started to laugh.

I will never forget the way you looked at me every time you walked by, but most of all I will never forget you, goodbye.

Ashley Chaves

*Your memory is a keepsake
From which we will never part.
God has you in His keeping,
We still have you in our Heart.*

In Loving Memory Of Sean Anthony Pierce

Born: February 22, 1984
Died: November 25, 2000

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the softly falling snow. I am the gentle showers of rain, I am the field of ripening grain.

I am in the morning hush, I am in the graceful rush. Of beautiful birds in circling flight, I am in the starshine of the night.

I am in the flowers that bloom, I am in a quiet room. I am in the birds that sing, I am in each lovely thing.

Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there I do not die.

In Loving Memory of Winifred Medeiros

September 24, 1941 to March 16, 2002

Winnie Medeiros will long be remembered by me and others as a very caring person who maintained a very sincere commitment to her students and the teaching profession. She would often approach me, in her usual pleasant manner, with ideas that would be primarily focused on providing broadened learning and work experiences for her classes. She was very much inclined toward advocating for her students and was always concerned with promoting their welfare beyond the walls of Somerset High School. Her pleasant, disarming manner, her concern for others and her gift for teaching will not be easily replaced. Although she was taken from us in untimely fashion, I consider it a privilege to have worked with her. I will always recall her as one of my most trusted and loyal colleagues, a true friend.

Don Rebello

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one

I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles
when life is done

I'd like to leave an echo whispering
softly down the ways

Of happy times and laughing times and
bright and sunny days

I'd like the tears of those who grieve;
to dry before the sun

Of happy memories
that I leave
When life is done

To her students she was a teacher, a mentor, the "Candy Lady." To me she was a colleague, my golfing companion, my friend. In all the years I knew her, I never heard her speak an ill word about anyone. She was one of the kindest, gentlest people I have ever known, and I will miss her forever.

Kathy Goodwin

Having taught with Mrs. Medeiros for the past 19 years, I am deeply saddened by the sudden loss of my colleague and dearest friend. The staff and students of Somerset High School have lost a truly dedicated teacher and a wonderful person. We will all miss her quiet, mild-mannered demeanor and huge heart. She was a fine "lady" in the truest sense of the word.

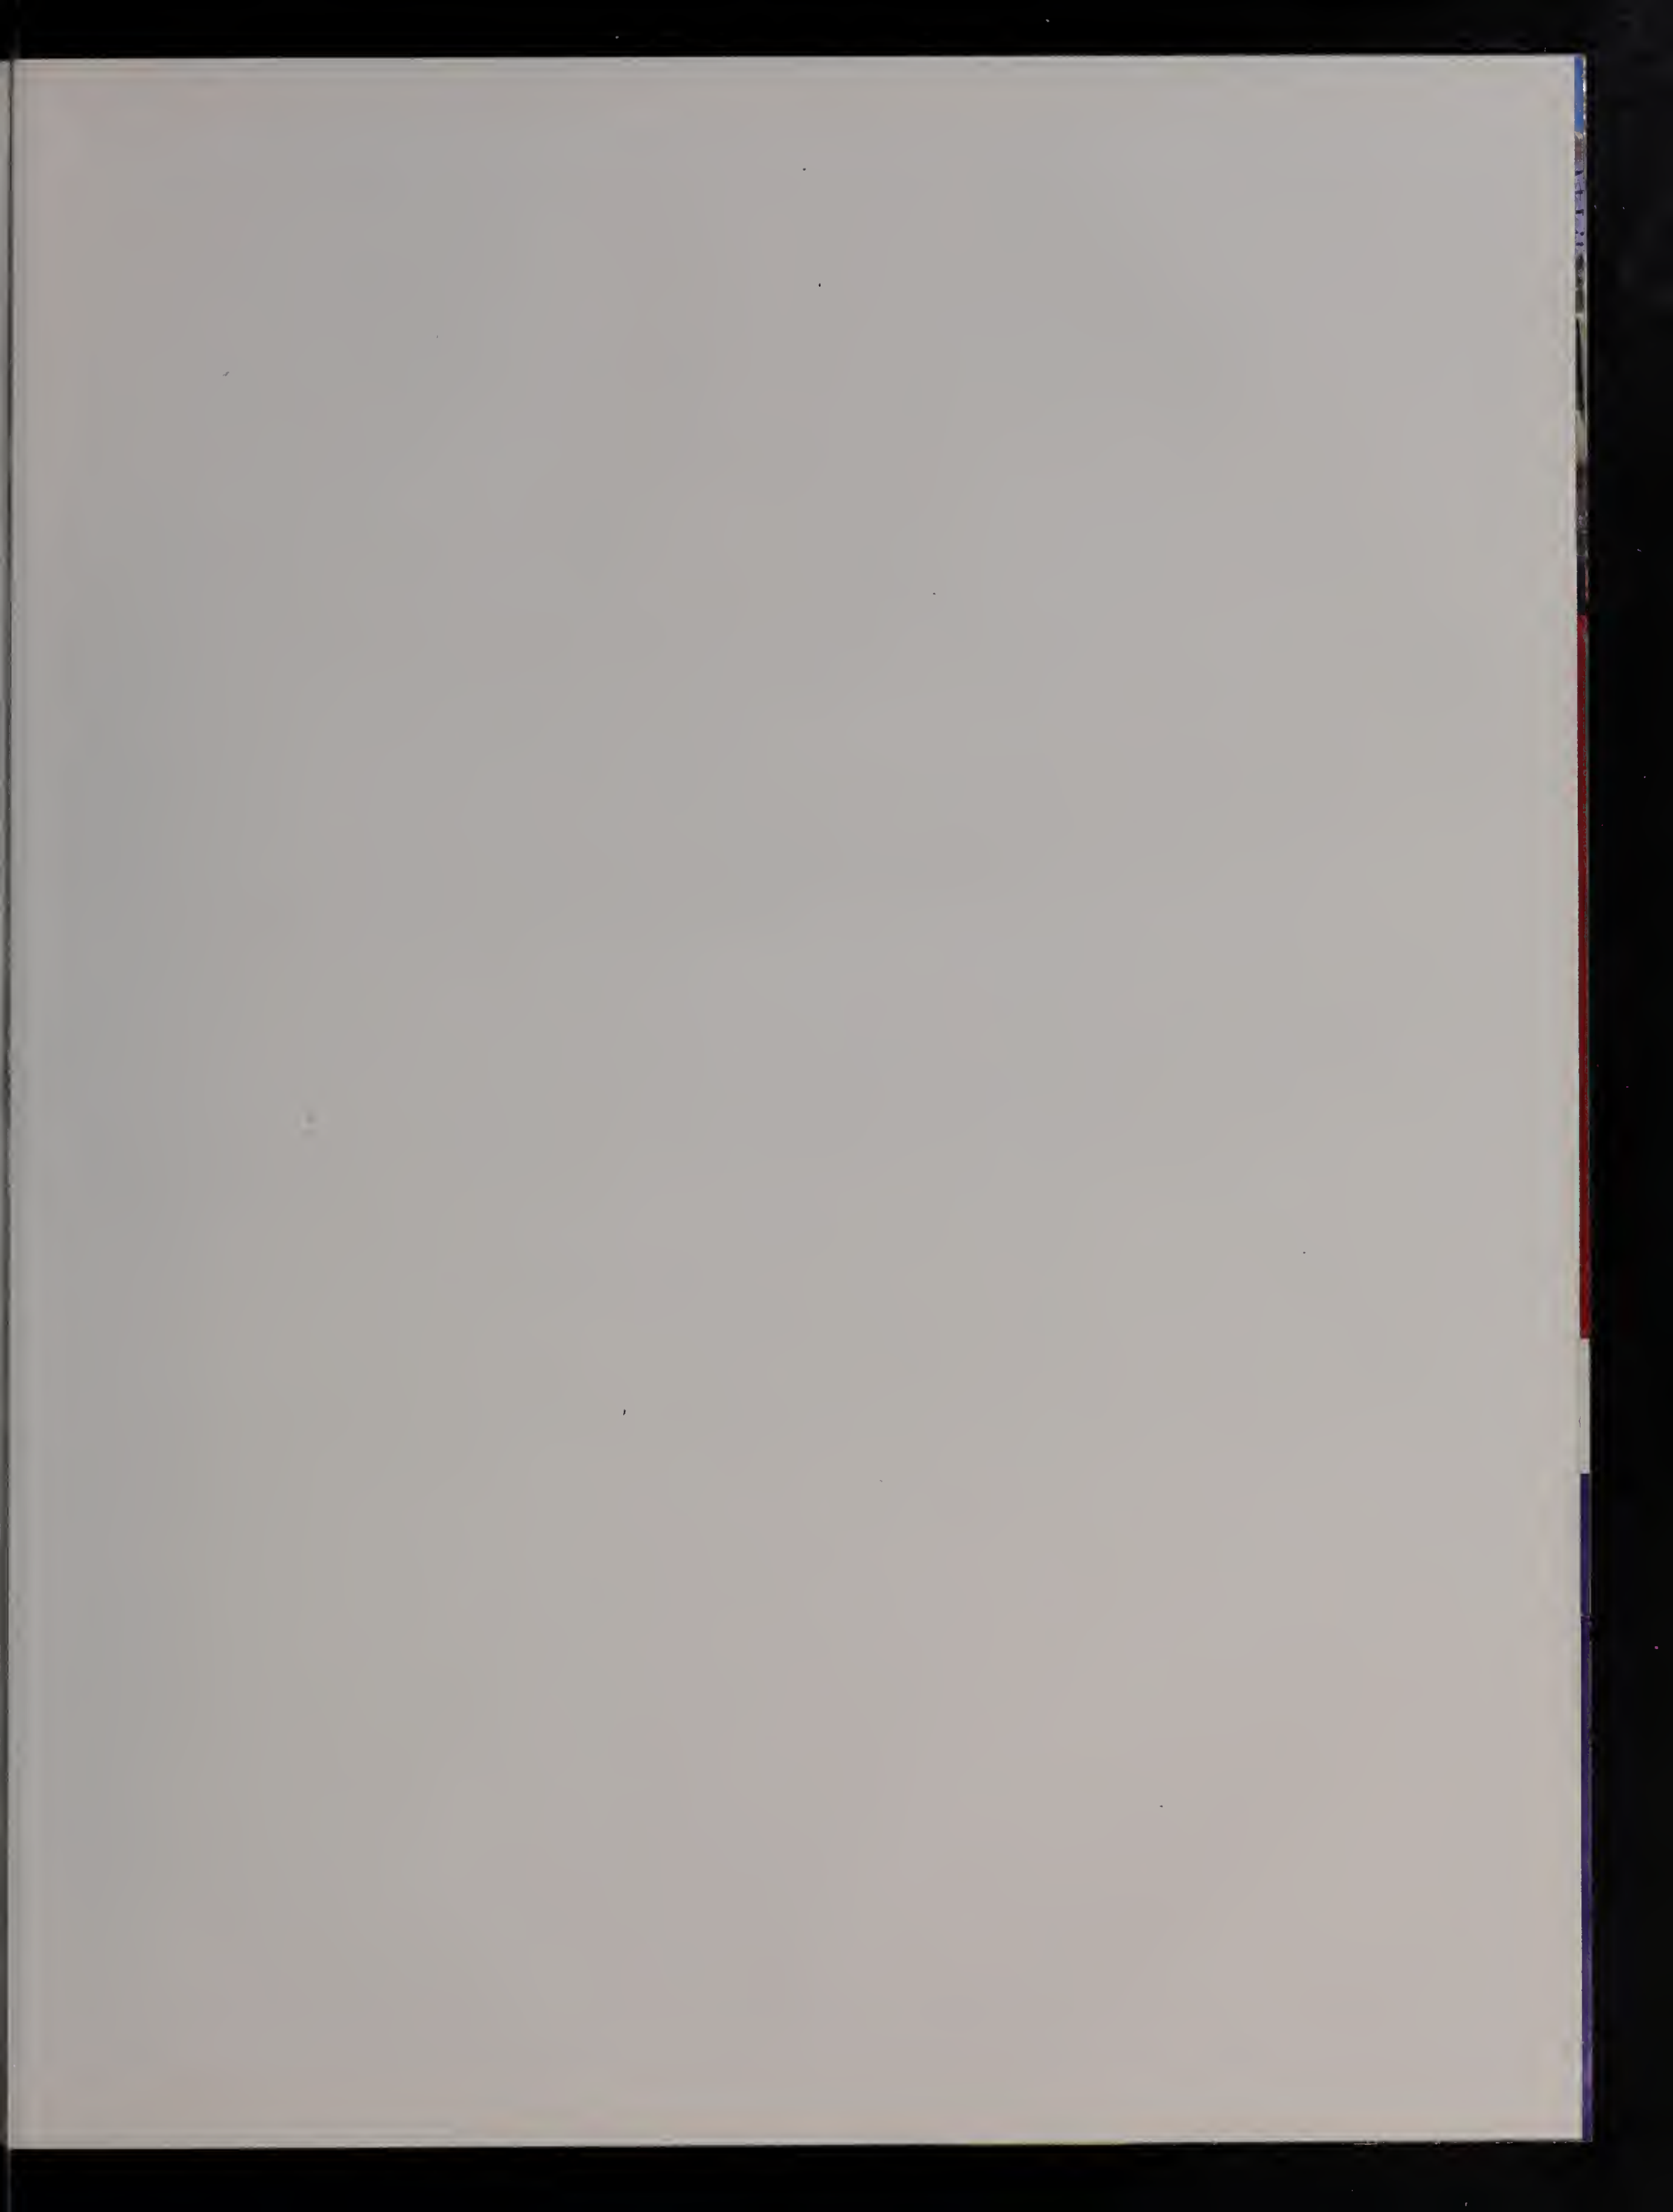

Sharon Cavallaro

Winnie can be simply described as a gentle, kind, thoughtful lady, who truly loved life, her family, friends and students. She loved to have fun, laugh and celebrate life to its fullest. No matter how busy she was, she always had time for her friends and family. Winnie was a very strong, caring person who put others' feelings and needs before her own. Her glass was always full with faith, hope and love and this was demonstrated every day. She was truly a wonderful, dedicated colleague and friend, who is and will always be missed.

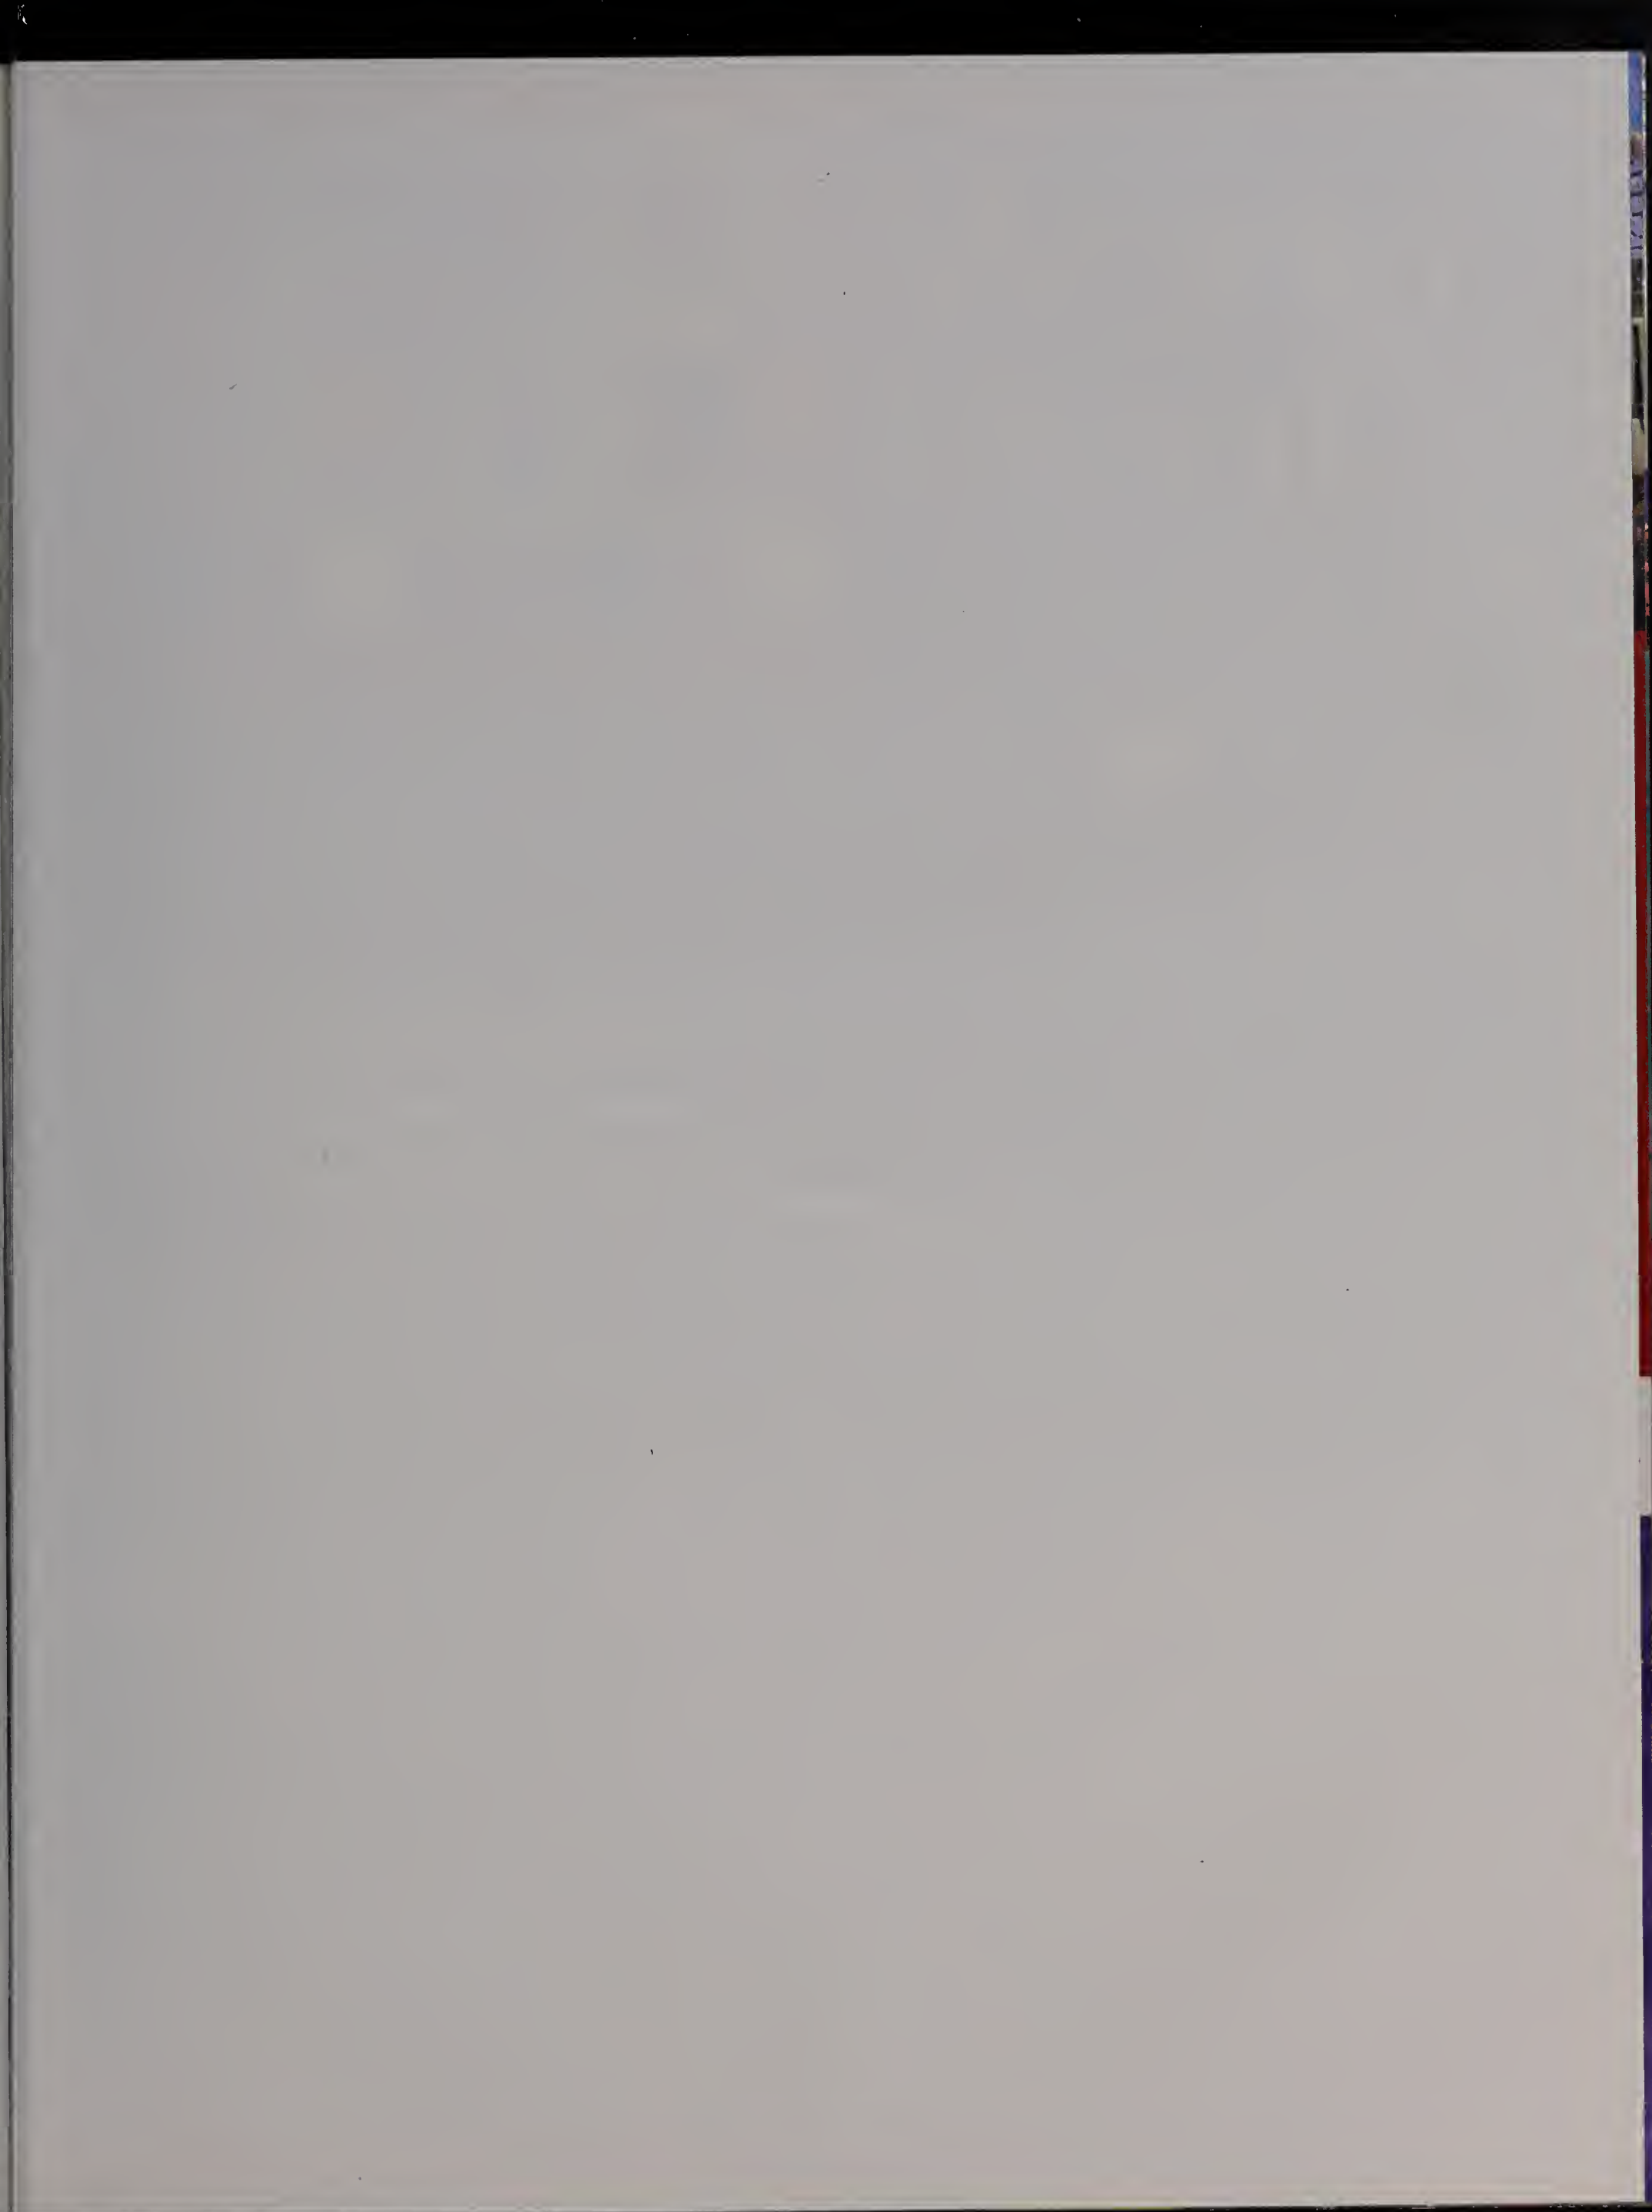

Jo-Ann Delisle

Mrs. Medeiros was my dearest friend for many years. Her death has been a great loss, and I miss her. However, I am grateful that she didn't have to spend a very long time in such pain. She was a beautiful human being. Some of the words that come to mind when I think of her are: adventurous, generous, fun-loving, honest, meticulous, and devoted. The world is a sadder place without her, but all my memories are happy ones.
